DIVINE PRAYER AND VOW FOR ABUNDANCE

BY RACHEL SCOLTOCK

I invoke the beloved Divine God, Goddess Presence, Archangel Michael & my guardian angels & guides to work with me, for & through me in all directions of time and space, to bring about the manifestation of this vow in perfect ways and according to Divine will.

I declare and vow that I am ready and willing to open my heart and mind completely to the joy and abundance of life.

I am ready to experience peace, abundance, health, vitality, love and joy in THIS REALITY and THIS TIME.

I commit and surrender to this path and I hold fast in my faith that I am guided and protected by Divine love.

I am ready to receive true abundance and love in all the ways it wants to express itself in my life, in perfect timing in perfect ways. I am open. I surrender my egoic need to control and pursue any situation.

I am willing and ready to let go of all conditions of scarcity, fear and limitation.

I let go of all grasping, resistance and self-sabotage I now flow with life. Trusting that as I do the highest will always flow my way.

I call in what I need in alignment with Source and for the Highest good, using my voice, words and thoughts to open the doors.

I let go of all beliefs which are corrupting my energy and mind with fear, resentment, disbelief, limitation, persecution and guilt.

I invoke the angels to release and transmute negative cords, traumas and small ideas which bind me to darkness, resentment and lack.

I stand firm as I claim and hold the sacred energetic frequency of Divine Love, abundant Prosperity, vital Vibrant Health, simple Joy, Sacred relationship with myself and others and my Source.

I fully recognise myself as Divine, Sacred and worthy and I treat myself with love and respect. I accept myself fully and I am willing to let go of all illusions of unworthiness which disconnect me from Abundant Love.

I now release all patterns that convince me I am less than my Divine Self.

I value myself, my energy, my time and my body and I release all need to experience abuse, poverty, lack, scarcity, disease and fear.

I value the rights of others as I do my own and I release and transmute my need to control, judge or abuse others, knowing that at core we are One.

I let go of "victim" thinking now and forever in all lifetimes and transmute this karma to Divine light.

I love and respect myself and love flows naturally into my life.

I let go of my fear that I am limited and powerless. I reclaim my power over my mind, my energy and my emotions with Divine help. I see myself as empowered and connected.

I am responsible for co-creating my experiences through alignment and love.

I know that my thoughts always return to me therefore I create a mindset that honours the life I want to experience.

I ask for Divine healing for my unhappy thought patterns. I reach for higher thoughts.

I bless and release all the hardship of the past. I see each situation as a teacher, I forgive and release all that has gone before. I grow more open and loving with each day. The past does not dictate who I am. I live fully in the present moment.

I am grateful for everything including the pain which has shown me a deeper understanding of life and myself and my power. I let go of guilt self-hatred and anger. Knowing that these are not true or real.

I vow to see life in new ways.

I hold dear my self-worth, my energy, my time, my space, my values, my integrity and my precious life. I honour and bless others where they are on their path. I let go of trying to fix everyone and I release “people pleasing” in exchange for honouring other people’s journey and loving myself.

I let go with love of anything that is showing me it's time to go.

I take one step at a time no longer comparing myself to others, I remove and release my need to absorb, partake or indulge in jealousy, resentment, self-hate, worry, guilt, gossip, self-pity, criticism, judgement, and attack.

I open my heart to give and receive love, compassion and peace.

I shine my light brightly and I hold new space to create and invite abundance. I stand in faith and peace. I know I am a creative force and I use my life for good in all ways.

I now allow myself to receive abundant blessings in whatever way they come. I show gratitude and life rewards me with greater abundance.

I am an open channel for abundance. I am a channel for Divine LOVE.

I feel fulfilled, loved, rich and connected, my fulfilment overflows to others. For this is my ascended path to serve from a place of fullness and compassion and self-love.

I am healing

Thank you Divine ones for your guidance, healing and protection on this path.

And so it is.

Amen.
